The gray afternoon was wearing on to its chill close; the dark cope of immovable dun cloud overhead seemed to contract and grow closer to the silent world beneath it; and the steep, chalky hill, leading from the ancient village, with its hoary castle and church, up over the bleak, barren down, was a weary thing to climb. The solitary traveler along that quiet road moved her limbs more slowly, and felt her breath coming more quickly and shortly, as she mounted higher and higher, and the gray Norman tower lessened and gradually sunk out of sight behind her. But she toiled bravely on between the high tangled hedges, draped with great curtains of traveler s joy, now a mass of the silvery seed-feathers which the country children call old man s beard, and variegated with the deep-purple leaves of dogwood, the crimson...
