By Edward Dean Arnold

PearlStone Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 280 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.1in. x 0.7in. Reminiscent of The Best Man with the solid, sexy, urban vibe of Love Jones, Lovin Mrs. Jones is not your typical girl meets boy and they live happily ever after kind of story. Nor is it an affair; but more so what happens when you meet the right one (thats really meant for you) during a time when youre already committed to the wrong one. What do you do Say hello to Gabriel Washington; the soon-to-be groom that appears to have it all together. Hes a strikingly handsome, financially secure, and spiritually grounded bank exec who is only five days away from marrying his college sweetheart, Tracee Andrews. Despite her sharp tongue and sometimes manipulative ways, Tracee represents everything any sane man would ever want in a woman. With a successful career in journalism, she possesses all the qualities that intimidate the most confident of men. But as Gabriel soon discovers, the appearance of having everything on the outside is sometimes not enough to fill the void of whats missing on the inside. So when this undeniably together brotha meets Alexandria Jones, a beautiful and soft-spoken woman...
