Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Infant Class in the Sunday School: An Essay to Which the Committee of the Sunday-School Union Adjudged the First Prize in 1851 In all the districts, great numbers of children who had been in regular attendance on Sunday schools for a period of from five to nine years, were found, on examination, to be not only altogether ignorant of Christian principles, doctrine, and precepts, but they knew nothing whatever of any of the events of Scripture History, nor anything even of the names most commonly occurring in the Scriptures. This passage occurs in a Government Report, published a few years since. I do not quote it, as a believer in its truth, for my belief respecting this sweeping declaration is, that it is most untrue; it is a libel on the noble and self-sacrificing exertions of my fellow-labourers in this department of service, the Sunday School Teachers of Great Britain, to whom I respectfully dedicate this little volume. I have, however, another object in view in placing it at the head of these prefatory...
