The high-growth, high-demand industry areas include many specific occupations for which Job Corps students can receive training. For example, among the career training offered by some centers in the construction industry are bricklaying, carpentry, cement masonry, electrical, facilities maintenance, painting, plastering, and plumbing. Within the health care industry, some centers provide career training in dental assistance, medical assistance, nursing assistance, and pharmacy technician. ( See app. II for a list of career training offerings available within the industry areas for program year 2007. ) Most centers offer a range of career training choices, but some centers have more limited choices. For example, among the centers we visited, the number of career training offerings ranged from as many as 14 at 1 center to 3 at...
