Recent reports of departments of the State government which deal with social matters indicate that the Commonwealth is not gaining (except as to physical health) in the battle against those classes which are burdensome to society. Our hospitals for the insane are as good as any in the country, but mental disease is not decreasing in Virginia. Our methods of dealing with criminals, paupers and other anti-social groups have not resulted in the reduction of their numbers; the increase of anti-social classes appears to keep pace with the growth of population. This is true not only of Virginia, but of the nation at large. It is now generally admitted by specialists in social sciences that crime, pauperism, as well as insanity, result largely from conditions of the mind, and the inefficiency of our present methods of dealing with such classes is doubtless due to our failure to give adequate recognition to mental causes. The report herewith presented is a study of degeneracy from this point of view, and it is respectfully suggested that in the perusal of these papers the following facts be kept in mind: 1. That there is...
