By Emily Murdoch

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Victoria Walsingham is head over heels in love with Isaac Quinn, the son of the Duke of Daventry, and she cant imagine spending the rest of her life with anyone else. But when Isaac admits that, despite his feelings for her, he cannot possibly marry the daughter of a country doctor, Victoria is left heartbroken. However, when her brother unexpectedly inherits the title of the Earl of Cheshire, Victorias life is transformed and she is thrown into high-society. Despite her mothers best efforts, the endless balls and social engagements of the London season have little impact on Victoria. Her heart will only ever belong to Isaac. When they finally return home at the end of the season, much to Victorias relief, she finds an invitation awaiting her. An invitation to the wedding of Mr Isaac Quinn and a Miss Hestia Royce. With Victorias heart breaking all over again, she must deal with the added hardship of seeing Isaac at every turn. As events unfold, Victoria finds herself spending more and more time with Isaac, reigniting...
