Red Letter Books, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 178 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It's just your age, Jackie. You'll be on beta-blockers and warfarin for the rest of your life. The doctor's words terrified Jackie Mannell, then in her late 40s. She'd never taken drugs and had no intention of starting. But how could she heal her heart's abnormal rhythm naturally? Within three months of embarking on her self-healing journey, she was declared fit and healthy and has written this life story to inspire and help others to take charge of their own well-being. The beliefs Jackie learnt in her childhood shaped her thoughts and actions in later life and, ultimately, they caused her illness. Dis-ease in the mind causes disease in the body - it's as simple as that. Jackie's story will resonate with everyone at some point and that's its beauty: everyone suffers difficult times in their lives, whether it's being bullied at school, enduring crippling bereavement, becoming a victim in an emotionally abusive relationship or getting sucked into others' distorted realities. But not everyone realises they can control their destiny and turn their life around - Jackie succeeded. And she now wants to share the most important message she's learnt: you can heal yourself, naturally. Her story begins with a very happy childhood. Her parents were poor, but that never bothered her. She was an only child; the sole survivor of five children. Her parents were alternative, in terms of their spiritual and lifestyle choices, which by the standards of the 1970s made her family unusual. None of this bothered her. But her mother was diabetic and that did bother her - especially,...
