Excerpt: . . . which forms the subject of the second suit; and when, according to the direction of the Subordinate Judge, the cases were separated and a separate plaiut filed in respect of the second business, this claim of Rs. 1, 000 should have been transferred to such second plaint. The second appeal No. 14 of 1880 relates to the second business conducted by the same persons. It is alleged that this business was commenced on the 231-d Falgoon 1284 (6th March 1878); that the plaintiffs and defendants were partners therein and that the plaintiffs had an eight anna share; and the defendants Kedar Nath Mullick and Russick Lall Mullick, the other eight anna share. It is not distinctly alleged that this second business has been closed, but the cause of action is dated from Bysack 1285, when certain arbitrators were appointed to settle disputes between the...
