Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Glorifying in the Cross of Christ There is probably no single sermon in the English language which has acquired a higher place in the esteem of sound theologians and evangelical Christians, than that which is here offered to the public. Although it has always been deemed the principal gem of the author s works it is not always to be procured in a cheap and separate form. This was to be regretted, as the discourse is no less valuable for the Instruction and edification of private members of the Church, than admirable as an exemplar for young preachers. Not only is it happy in style, but its subject is the very heart and life of the Gospel system. The Rev. John Maclaurin was born in Argylshire, In 1693. He was the eldest of three brothers; of whom the youngest, Colin Maclaurin, is known as one of the most eminent of British mathematicians and philosophers, remarkable, among other services to science, for the share which he had in expounding and popularizing the discoveries of Sir Isaac Newton. The brothers pursued their University studies together, but at an early date diverged into their respective paths. After a complete theological training, first at Glasgow, and then at Leyden, John Maclaurin became, in 1719, pastor of the church at Luss, a village on the banks of Loch Lomond.
