By Alec Nesbitt

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An Improbable Love Story A classic Grecian beauty who lives with constant danger, Ariana travels the roads of Eastern Europe delivering contracts too incriminating to be sent any other way. Alone at high speed in her Bentley, she wonders who she really is, why she's always been so aloof, indifferent to the admiration she receives. An evening watching a belly-dancer opens the door to her sudden self-discovery and the exciting though provoking story that unfolds. FLASHDRIVE takes you into a little known world of high-level international crime where betrayal is commonplace and transcendent love is unknown. From Cartier in the Place Vendome, to the bar at The Bigudi Terrace in Istanbul, to the remoteness of an archaeological dig at Troy, to Frolik - the superyacht of a Russian billionaire - the story moves quickly, contrasting Ariana's interior search to the vast cybercrimes directed by her father from his office overlooking the Aegean. Her library of music, stored on iPods in Zeus - Ariana's Bentley - plays an oddly powerful part in bringing her together with...
